

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Shirley Ann VanMeter

She was born November 28, 1935 in Minneapolis, Minnesota to Mason Eugene and Lucille Florence (Kearns) Stanley. She died Thursday afternoon, September 11 2008 at Augustana Health Care Center of Minneapolis where she lived for the last five years.

She worked as a waitress in restaurants and bars and had an outgoing personality.

Shirley is preceded in death by her parents; husband, John Jacob VanMeter and son, John Driscoll.

She is survived by her daughter, Terry Baumgardner; sons, Bill Redman, Clifford Redman and Bruce Redman; granddaughter, Tanya Baumgardner; grandson, Jason Baumgardner; great-granddaughters, Dejanae Baumgardner and Jasmine Baumgardner; great-grandsons, Dante Baumgardner, Jason Baumgardner, Jr. and Romaine Baumgardner and 1 great niece and 2 great-great nieces.

~ GRAVESIDE SERVICE ~

Friday, September 19, 2008
10:30 AM

Meet in Assembly area #6
by 10:15 AM

Ft. Snelling National Cemetery
494 and 34th Av. S.,
Ft. Snelling, Minnesota

~ MEMORIALS PREFERRED TO ~ Donor's Choice

AT SUNSET

Do you know the hour
When the sun goes down
Is a beautiful time of day—
When your task is done
And the shadows fall
And your worries are laid away?

Well, it's just as true
That the close of life
Can a beautiful sunset be
Every task well done
Let the shadows fall
There's no fear of eternity.

—G. Gilbert