IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Lillian Sperry Hawkins

Of Ebenezer Care Center, Minneapolis, Minnesota. She was born March 31, 1908, passed away November 3, 2007. Formerly of Mobridge, South Dakota, also living in Rochester, Minnesota and most recently at Ebenezer Hall in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Preceded in death by her husband J. Wayne Hawkins, and her brother and sister.

She leaves a daughter, Susan, of Minneapolis, and a son, Louis (Deb) of New Jersey, grandchildren Michael and Sabrina (Brian) and one great grandchild, Dylan, as well as one niece and three nephews.

Lillian attended school at Northern Normal in Aberdeen South Dakota, and began her teaching career in a one room school house in Gettes, South Dakota, during the Depression. After achieving her Bachelor's degree from Lincoln Nebraska, she moved to Mobridge, South Dakota where she arranged and conducted Operettas as Music Teacher for the school system. She was an accomplished accompanist for soloists and choirs in several churches. She and Wayne married in 1941 and when she returned to teaching in the 50's, she taught 4th grade. She celebrated the talents and joys of her students throughout her teaching career, and continued her celebration of life the rest of her days.

*Whatever the weather may be, my friend,
Whatever the weather may be,
It's the songs you sing and the smiles you wear
That bring sunshine everywhere!*
