

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Patrick Richard Duff

Age 32. Born March 28, 1977. Died in a tragic accident on November 5, 2009 in Hamlin Park, WA. He is now home with his Lord & Savior. He lived in Shoreline, WA with his loving wife and best friend Suzy (Breidenbach) Duff. He was the beloved son of Dr. Richard and Delphine Duff, step-son to Ray S. Clarke, brother to Christopher (Julene) Duff and Matthew (Angela) Duff, beloved grandson of Kathryn A. Olivera & step-brother to Sharon (Bruce) Ribnick & LeeAnne (Mark) Anderson. Patrick was born and raised in Edina, Minnesota. After graduating from the University of Minnesota with a Bachelor's in Creative Writing, he moved to Seattle with Suzy to attend graduate school at the UW and earned his MFA in Creative Writing in 2006. Over the last few years Patrick commuted to Bainbridge Island where he worked as Production Manager for Fenwick Publishing. Suzy and Patrick spent many weekends with their dog Sheila hiking the mountain and lake trails of Washington, camping and capturing photographs of the scenery around them. He was a motorcycle enthusiast, participating as an active member of the Sound RIDER! motorcycle community, and always looked forward to his annual hunting trip in Minnesota with the Keenans. Patrick was preceded in death by his father Dr. Richard M. Duff, his maternal grandfather Alexander C. Olivera, his paternal grandparents Dr. Edwin and Ruth Duff. Patrick will be greatly missed by his wife, immediate and large extended family & his many wonderful friends.
