

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Ruby M. Jensen

Ruby Jensen was born in Minneapolis on February 4, 1913. She was raised with love by her mother, Mary Lamboy and surrounded by grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends in her Prospect Park community.

She married her husband, Clifford Jensen, in 1935. Together they enjoyed gardening, playing cards with friends and caring for their beloved dogs. They were married for 52 years when Clifford passed away in 1987.

Ruby's community was very important to her. She was an active member of Prospect Park United Methodist Church where she helped out at funerals and participated in missions with the UMW. When I visited with Ruby, she enjoyed talking about the ministers who had served at Prospect Park and was happy when I could provide her with any updates. She volunteered as an election judge each year for many years.

Ruby was a deeply religious woman who believed that life was a gift from God. I will remember her for her belief in the importance and goodness of all people.
