IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Betty A. Krause (Nokleby)

Of Minneapolis went home with her Lord November 28, 2010. Betty graduated from Minnehaha Academy and Northwestern College. She was an accomplished musician and teacher. She had been a pianist on KTIS and for many large evangelical events including Youth for Christ. Betty was an organist in several churches.

She taught music K-12 in a public school in So. Illinois and was a band teacher in many Twin Cities Catholic and Lutheran schools for over 30 years. She loved to travel, especially all over Alaska. Betty was an encourager and a devout Christian who loved her Lord. Thanks to all the caring staff at Abbott Northwestern Hospital and Presbyterian Home of Roseville and especially Dr. Mark Schmidt.
