IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Donald Vernon Rundquist

Age 91, of Minneapolis, Minnesota died peacefully at Meadow Woods Assisted Living in Bloomington, Minnesota on December 31, 2007.

Born in Minneapolis on August 17, 1916, he was the son of Albert and Mildred (Gerard) Rundquist. He graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1934. He married Vera Linnea Bostrom on July 20, 1939 at Central Free Church in Minneapolis. He began his career as a trolley operator until duty called and he proudly went to serve his country in the U.S. Navy during World War II. After the city bus replaced the trolley lines, he drove for Metropolitan Transit Commission a bus driver for 38 years until his retirement in 1979. He was an avid fisherman and a dedicated Twins baseball fan. Due to his quick wit and sense of humor, he will be fondly remembered as a beloved story teller. Don was a lifetime member of Central Free Church in Minneapolis. His life was defined by his passion and commitment to his Savior and was readily demonstrated by his kindhearted generosity. Throughout his journey he ministered to others by playing his harmonica, telling jokes with an infectious smile, and lending a listening ear.
