

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Nancy (Bell) Byrd

Byrd (Bell), Nancy age 89 formerly of Albion, Michigan, peacefully went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, December 4, 2011 at St. Therese Home, New Hope, Minnesota. She was born May 12, 1922 in Savannah, Georgia. During WWII Nancy was a "Rosie Riveter". In the 50's and 60's she was a volunteer for March of Dimes (Mother's March), also active getting people to the polls, a PTA office holder and an entrepreneur. Nancy was a member of Bethel Baptist Church in Albion, Michigan where she once served as an auxiliary for the women's mission. She will be remembered for her love to care for the plight of less fortunate for adopted children. We will miss her discerning reasoning mind and encouraging personality, she positively touched countless lives.
